

Innovating in IT services

Unparalleled talent, a thriving professional services sector and access to the second-largest information technology cluster in North America create the ideal conditions for IT services in Richmond Hill.

Richmond Hill is a knowledge economy leader with:

- One of the most educated workforces in Canada
- The Centre for Local Innovation and Collaboration's Human-Centred Design program assists early-stage startups and scale-up businesses with their research, design and innovation challenges
- A local business cluster that ranges from startups to global leaders like Compugen and Epicor

Richmond Hill has the highest number of STEM graduates per capita in Canada

Perfectly
Situated

Sector Leaders

At the heart of information innovation in Ontario

The Toronto-Waterloo Corridor is a highly connected economy that contributes $360 billion to Canada's GDP. It runs from Windsor in the West to Ottawa in the East with Richmond Hill situated at the centre.

This innovation corridor covers two of the three most concentrated tech markets in North America and two of the largest startup ecosystems in the world.

➔ Whether you are relocating or looking for the most innovative IT services talent, products and services, Richmond Hill is your top choice.

Smart people from all over the world come to Richmond Hill to build and grow innovative businesses.

Today we are home to over 5,000 companies, many of whom are designing and developing the next generation of cutting-edge products.

Powered by one of Canada's most educated workforces, our city and businesses are building economic resilience by innovating for the present and future.

Knowledge economy leader

- 22 colleges and universities within 60 minutes
- Home to Centre for Local Innovation and Collaboration (CLIC)
- Access to top incubators and investors
- A key stop on Ontario's Innovation Corridor, a highly connected economy contributing $360 billion to Canada's GDP

Move people and goods easily

- 35 km to Canada's largest airport, Pearson International Airport
- 400-series highway system
- Toronto subway extension to the Richmond Hill Centre in progress
- Public transit includes bus and rapid transit service

One of Canada's most educated populations

- 79% have post-secondary education
- 15,000+ tech workers with the majority concentrated on computer systems design and related services
- The highest number of STEM graduates per capita

City living at its finest

- Beautiful outdoor spaces
- Modern urban amenities
- Progressive and accountable municipal leadership

A stable and competitive business environment

- Competitive development rates and start-up costs
- Comparatively low business and residential taxes
- Lowest labour costs of any G7 country
- 2,159 Engineering Services workers in Richmond Hill

Sources: 2021 Statistics Canada Census Data; Invest Ontario; Global Affairs Canada

Contact Us

Our Economic Development team promises straightforward one-stop efficient business services and support. Just tell us how we can help.

225 East Beaver Creek Road
Richmond Hill, Ontario
🇨🇦 Canada L4B 3P4

E. ecdev@richmondhill.ca
T. 1-844 COME2RH (266-3274)
+1 905 771 5483
W. BusinessRichmondHill.ca

THINKING FORWARD ➡